Try a new adventure!

Dear Friends,

2010 marks the 21st annual Tees Longears Days Donkey & Mule Show! This year marks the start of a new decade. It seems like only yesterday we were worried about Y2K. How quickly does 10 years go by!

The Alberta Donkey & Mule Club invites long-standing participants and newcomers to come and enjoy a family orientated weekend while watching the skills of mules and donkeys performing in events more commonly seen for horses. From riding to driving to fun classes, you are guaranteed to have some laughs and become a longear fan too.

The Alberta Donkey & Mule Club appreciates the opportunity to exhibit our donkeys and mules before the public. Members have persevered to showcase their animals' abilities and personalities. This year I challenge everyone to encourage a neighbour, a cousin, a friend, a co-worker or even an aunt or uncle that has not experienced our show to attend. If you are aware of other donkey and mule owners, encourage their attendance too. Put forth an effort and sing the praises of our show and our animals.

Linda Finstad, a professional photographer from A Sharper Image, Edmonton, Alberta, will be taking photographs on Sunday. Linda graced us with her presence in 2009 and we are very excited to have her back.

Bonnie Shields, the Tennessee Mule Artist, will also be in attendance. Bonnie is a cowboy cartoonist from Sandpoint, Idaho. Her creations are so humorous and show the comical side of long-eared animals. We are honoured to have such an artistic talent grace us with her presence.

Whether you are participating with your long-eared critter in the show or coming out to enjoy the entertainment, this is the only Donkey & Mule Show in Alberta. We are noted for lots of laughs and enjoyment for all ages!

A tack swap will take place prior to supper on Saturday afternoon. Bring your tack-related items to sell or swap with other vendors and buyers.

Following a delicious catered supper, you can sit back and raise your hand to place bids at the live auction. Plans also include a silent auction and poetry to melt your heart or make you laugh till the tears flow. Good music will round out the night's festivities. Please bring an item or two for the auction to support the club. By supporting us this way, it enables us to keep our entry fees minimal while still covering our costs.

A weekend that includes warm hospitality, a display of the amazing abilities of our great animals, and good friendships is my vision for this year's Longears Days. I hope that you will join us!

Warmest Regards,

Colleen Campbell
Chair, 2010 Tees Longears Days

SPECIAL GUEST – BONNIE SHIELDS

“Not many folks claim to be a bona fide mule artist and there’s probably a really good reason for that. I just ignore stuff like that and keep on drawin and painting and sculpting mules. Been doing this full-time for fun and profit since the mid 70s.

I grew up in southern Indiana a typical horse-crazy kid with a flair for drawing. I dutifully drove my parents nuts until they allowed me to buy a $50 un-broke filly when I was 14. She died of old age still in my possession, so it musta worked, but in the meantime, I had moved to middle Tennessee and ran smack-dab into the mule. We’ve neither one been the same since!

From the get-go, they fascinated me and I found myself learning more and more about the mule and about the wonderful people connected with them. It takes character and co-operation to live with these critters, much as it does to live with our fellow humans.

In my career, I’ve illustrated books about ‘em, sculpted monuments to them, and owned and loved some wonderful mules of my own. Currently I live in Sandpoint, Idaho with my husband, six mules, a donkey, three dogs and a cat and I am still doing my thing. A certain “Hard Case,” I’d say, but what can you do? We’re talking MULES here! Looking forward to seeing old friends and new at TEES LONGEARS DAYS!”

Bonnie has created all of the artwork for Meredith Hodges’ children’s series, “Jasper the Mule.” She has worked on many projects and shows no signs of slowing down. Bonnie last visited Tees Longears Days in 2000 and had designed a special “Muleneyum” T- shirt just for us! We would like to challenge those of you that still have your 2000 T-shirts to wear them Saturday evening! There will be prizes involved!

Special Thanks

Meet your Judge

Laverne Schmidt
Onoway, AB

Laverne has enjoyed being our judge on numerous occasions and likes our show so much that he was anxious to return and do the honours of presiding over our show. Laverne and his wife, Carolyn, believe that equine shows should be FUN, so they fit in very well with our agenda here at Tees! Laverne has been riding and training for many years and is a Certified Equine Canada Western Level 2 Coach. We are very honoured to have him back again this year.

Meet your Announcer

Russ Finlay
Westerose, AB

Russ is back by popular demand. Russ announces at horse shows, rodeos and anywhere there's action! With his quick wit and sense of humour, he keeps everyone in stitches. Russ is also an auctioneer for horse and cattle sales throughout Canada. Russ and his wife Eve live at 2020 Stock Farm and are owned by various critters! He has been an integral part of this show for the many years!! We are extremely pleased to have Russ again this year.

Extra special thanks to our Volunteers!

Class Descriptions

SHOWMANSHIP. Judged strictly on the exhibitor's ability to fit and show a donkey/mule at halter. A good performance consists of a poised, confident and neatly dressed handler and a well-groomed animal that performs the requested pattern with smoothness and precision. The conformation of the animal is NOT judged.

1. Junior Showmanship (Donkey or Mule, any size)
2. Senior Showmanship (Donkey or Mule, any size)

Points are given for each obstacle navigated in a mannerly, safe and correct sequence. After 3 refusals at the same obstacle, the judge will ask the rider or handler to proceed to the next obstacle. Animals in Lead Line Trail are generally too small or too young to ride but are judged similarly.
